INCONJUNCTION
Science Fiction & Fantasy Convention

Dear Sir/Madam:

The Circle of Janus is a local non-profit club that works to promote literacy within our local communities. One of the ways we do this is by sponsoring InConJunction, an annual science fiction/fantasy convention. Many of our guests are well known authors, as well as local and hopeful authors. Each year we hold a charity auction to benefit the Indiana Literacy Association and one other charity chosen by the Convention Chair. ILA works to advance the cause of adult literacy in Indiana. Adult literacy issues are more common than many people are aware. This organization works to decrease the number of illiterate adults in Indiana.

This year we are also including Camp Sundown, a summer camp for children with Xeroderma Pigmentosum. This rare disease literally keeps people in the dark. Exposure to sunlight, due to the body's inability to recover from exposure to ultraviolet light, causes a number of diseases including cancers and neurological damage. Camp Sundown allows children with XP to have the same experiences as other children at summercamp while utilizing the nighttime hours for many of their activities.

My hope is you would be willing to donate an item or two for the auction. Rest assured that all items donated are auctioned off and 100% of the proceeds are distributed to the selected charities. Last year, with the help of those that donated, we raised over $1600.00 for ILA and Donorschoose.org.

We are interested in a wide variety of items for auction. Special interest, of course, is any item related to science-fiction or fantasy novels and movies. However, we have had success in the past with gift baskets, gift certificates, toys, autographed items, etc. Our convention this year is from July 5-7, 2013. We hope to receive all of our donated items by June 25, 2012. We are able to pick up items in the Indianapolis and surrounding areas.

I would be more than happy to discuss donation items at your convenience. If you are interested in making a donation, please contact me at (317) 694-6811 or by email at charity@inconjunction.org to discuss arrangements.

Thank you so much for your consideration,

Debbie Happli, Dept. Chair
