

INCONJUNCTION

Science Fiction & Fantasy Convention

ART SHOW

Dear Artist:

You are invited to show your art Friday through Sunday, July 4rd – 6th, 2025, at InConJunction 44, a science fiction and fantasy convention to be held at the Indianapolis Marriott East.

If you wish to participate in this year's show please reply via e-mail to the address listed at the bottom of this letter, or by postal mail with your name and postal address, indicating how much space you wish to reserve. Please include your display fees with your reservation or send the fees shortly thereafter if reserving by email.

The website at the bottom of this letter is your source for art show fees, rules and forms. Feel free to make copies of these forms. Please use only these forms. Do not make up your own.

We will have a silent auction. Rather than having a piece go to a voice auction after a prescribed number of bids, the entire battle for a piece will take place on the bid sheet. The highest bid on that sheet at 5:00 pm Saturday of the con is the winning bid. If a piece is especially contested the committee will ensure that additional paper for bids is provided.

There will again be a print shop if you wish to send items for direct sales at the art show.

If you are going to be present at InConJunction and would like to meet your public you are invited to rent a table in our Creators Alley. This is similar to the Artist's Alley at other cons but includes other creators as well such as authors and game creators.

All the information you should need is at the website listed below. Please let me know if you have comments or questions.

We look forward to hearing from you and hope to see you and/or your artwork at the convention!

Sincerely,

Ambert Lynch
